

Charleston UNESCO World Heritage Symposium

August 20-21, 2015

Closed Sessions

Thursday, August 20,

Hosted by the South Carolina Historical Society, Fireproof Building, 100 Meeting Street

9:00am: Presentation of Statement of Significance and Project Area, Brittany Lavelle Tulla, Acting Executive Director, Charleston World Heritage Coalition

9:15am: Roundtable Discussion and Q&A, Moderated by insitu

9:45am: Tour of City Center

12:30pm: Tour of Plantations and Rice Fields, Drayton Hall and Middleton Place

5:00pm: Roundtable Discussion, Middleton Place

8:00pm: Dinner, 8 Legare Street

Friday, August 21

Hosted by the College of Charleston, Simons Center 401, 54 St. Philip Street

9:00am: Morning Brief, Brittany Lavelle Tulla, Acting Executive Director, Charleston World Heritage Coalition

9:15am: Presentation of Outstanding Universal Value #1, The Evolution of Charleston Architecture, Robert P. Stockton, Adjunct Professor of History, College of Charleston, and a research consultant on the architecture and history of Charleston and the Lowcountry

9:30am: Breakout Session

10:15am: Roundtable Discussion of OUV #1, Moderated by insitu

10:30am: Break

10:45am: Presentation of Outstanding Universal Value #2, Port City and Trade, Dr. Nic Butler, historian, Charleston County Public Library

11:00am: Breakout Session

11:45am: Roundtable Discussion of OUV #2, Moderated by insitu

12:15pm: Lunch

1:15pm: Presentation of Outstanding Universal Value #3, African-American Contributions to Charleston's Built Environment, Christina Rae Butler, College of Charleston and American College of the Building Arts

1:30pm: Breakout Session

2:15pm: Roundtable Discussion of OUV #3, Moderated by insitu

2:45pm: Break

3:00pm: Roundtable Discussion on Final OUV and Statement of Significance, Moderated by insitu

8:00pm: Farewell Dinner